THE RESULTS - 1st grade draw and win. 2's lose and win. 3's and 4's both get it done. Colts lose, Willetton now sit 3rd in the WACA club championship.

THE RETURN – Englishman Varun Chopra (seen below vs CN ) arrives at Dragon Park for his 3rd stint as a guest appearance!

THE SONG LYRIC – "I wanna hold em' like they do in Texas please. Fold em' let em' hit me, raise it baby, stay with me!"

THE STAR – Tommy Archer destroyed the Claremont-Nedlands middle order on day one of the 3rd grade match after inclement weather caused an earlier, longer lunch. With rain falling outside making the deck rather lively, Archer was rather lively with a deck of his own, shuffling his way to victory in a hastily arranged game of poker.

After the delay, not only did Claremont-Nedlands fail to read his p-p-p-poker face, they also failed to read anything on a good length, collapsing from 1/126 to 162 all out!

THE HUSBAND – Joe Davies finds time during the round to end his days of bachelorhood and wed his partner Liz

Joe on his arrival to OZ – a retard 2 YEARS LATER a married man with a baby

THE NICKNAME – Riley Miguel = Wongy

THE RUNS – Chopra slotted straight back into the Dragons line up with two half centuries (59 & 69) whilst Kallan Bond (55), current and past 3rd grade captains Steve Smith (55) and Chris Boyes (50) and 4th grader Jason Cox (61) also notched fifties. Solid innings' from James O'Neill (85) and Gareth Whetnall (60) made sure the 2nd grade side would chase down Freo's target of 200 with ease.

THE WICKETS - Tommy Archer became the second name graffitied onto the Micky Jurss Michelle Pfeiffers. Kallan Bond claimed 3 wickets in the Colts one dayer and 2 a piece in the games against Claremont-Nedlands and Fremantle. Fellow leg-spinner Ben Beaglehole took 3 wickets against both sides also. Seven wickets between Kieran Gray (4/23) and Micky Jurss (3/22) saw the 4th grade side defend their total of 146.

THE WICKET! - C. de Silva, caught T. Archer, bowled M. Maguire. Castaway Chas da Silva in his first game against his former club skied a ball to mid on batting at number 10 for the Fremantle's second grade side. With 1 for 41 he starred with the ball as well and was on the receiving end of a Dragon beating.

Fremantle's no 10 second grade batsman Chaz de Silva

THE COMIC BOOK HERO – Asterix: Sean Brennan! Finally dismissed in the one dayer versus Freo after 3 previous unbeaten knocks. Sean, averaging 98, now has the tough choice of deciding which name he'd like to go by. Brenno, Asterix, Monkey or Don.

THE THOUGHT – You can't wake a person who is pretending to be asleep.
